WOW! What an #ArborWeek

100s of people celebrated trees and 1,000 trees found new homes

What an amazing #ArborWeek. We hosted over a dozen events, met and engaged with hundreds of Bostonians, and gave away over 1,000 trees! Thank you all for joining us and supporting our work.

We have so much planned for 2021, but we need your support today to plant more trees, engage more residents, and build a new generation of environmental advocates. It takes a forest of people to support a forest of trees. Your donation is gratefully appreciated.

AND, if you donate before today at 5pm, you'll be entered to win a Patagonia Black Hole 25 L Pack.

Your chance to win a Patagonia Pack ends at 5pm today
