

Today is #GivingTuesday

We hope you consider donating today to help build a more equitable urban forest in Boston.

It's #GivingTuesday today! By giving to Speak for the Trees, you contribute to increasing tree equity in Boston through the celebration, preservation, and planting of trees, especially in underserved and under-canopied neighborhoods.

Consider making a one-time donation today, or by becoming a monthly sustaining member. Through our new membership program, you may become eligible for benefits, including a book, swag, and early access to volunteer opportunities.

We are grateful to all who donate today and support our work year round. Together we're building a strong, diverse, and equitable urban forest for all. Thank you!
